

Shaker Library presents

Get Creative READ!

Inventions and Inventors

An invention is always something new and creative. It is either a new solution to a problem or a new idea. Some inventions happen by accident and some take engineers and scientists years to solve. Listed below are some important inventions. Match the inventions with the inventors and then read more about them at Shaker Library.

___ Intelligence Testing (1905)

___ Zipper (1891)

___ Scotch Tape (1929)

___ Braille Alphabet (1829)

___ Frozen Food (1924)

___ Elevator (1862)

___ Motion Pictures (1893)

___ Lock Cylinder (1851)

___ Automobile (1885)

___ Gas Mask (1914)

___ Nuclear Reactor (1942)

___ Bifocal Lens (1760)

___ Barbed Wire (1873)

___ Condensed Milk (1853)

1. Benjamin Franklin

2. Elisha G. Otis

3. Gail Borden

4. Thomas Edison

5. Karl Benz

6. Joseph E. Glidden

7. Richard Drew

8. Clarence Birdseye

9. Linus Yale

10. Garrett A. Morgan

11. Enrico Fermi

12. Louis Braille

13. W. L. Judson

14. Alfred Binet