

Moreland School enrollment is said to be 72% Jewish. Woodbury Junior High and Shaker High School are 65% Jewish.

The other great influx of population into the parish area has been Negro.

Although the Negro population has not as yet penetrated Shaker Heights, there is some indication that some are already housed within the Shaker boundry. Since the old restrictions will not hold, further changes in the immediate vicinity must be anticipated.

Streets to the West and South, just out of the Shaker Heights Corporation Limits, but definitely within the parish, are solidly Negro. Rickoff School in Cleveland is 98% Negro.

On several occasions Negro visitors have attended Sunday worship services.
