If you are 13-17 years of age, our Three for Teens card is for YOU!

Get your card at the Circulation desk at Main Library or Bertram Woods Branch. Then use the card only at Shaker Library to check out up to three books and to gain access to eMedia. You don't need to present an ID, but you must provide your address and birth date. A parent/guardian does not need to sign for your card and no holds can be placed with this card.

Reading Pays Off for Teens!

Teens ages 12-17 can present their own library card to earn "dollars" ($8 per hour) they can use to pay off current overdue fines on Shaker Library material just by reading here at the library. No registration is required.

October 18, November 15, December 20

September is National Library Card Sign-Up Month

Sign up for a free library card to gain access to a wealth of library resources. If you already have a card, but owe fines on it, take advantage of our one-time fine forgiveness for Shaker Library material anytime during the month of September.

Connect 4 Teen Center Tournament at Main Library

16 players will face-off in multiple rounds until there is just one player left who will be declared "The Connect 4 Teen Center Champion!" There will be a prize for the winner and snacks all around. No registration is required.

4-5:30 pm Wednesday, September 13

EXPRESS YOURSELF IN THE TEEN CENTER

Listen to a quick question or a scenario and tell us what you would do in that situation. There are no right or wrong answers. Get a snack, too. No registration is required.

3:30-5:30 pm Tuesdays, October 3, 17, & 31, November 14 & 28, and December 12 & 26

Write your thoughts. Write a poem. Write a little something for a tasty snack. No registration is required.

3:30-5:30 pm Tuesdays, October 10 & 24, November 7 & 21, and December 5 & 19

Teen Study Workshop in the Teen Center

Enjoy snacks as you work on homework assignments, projects or writing. Work by yourself, with others, or with the help of a librarian.
