Which Would You Choose? In or Out?

React to various eviction scenarios posted in the room and formulate a plan of action. You will be presented with local and national resources to help those facing eviction—and you will also have the opportunity to perform “random acts of kindness” within each scenario. Each day, you can choose to identify with the landlord or with the tenant.

3:30-5:30 pm January 29, 30, & 31 at Main

Which Would You Choose? In or Out? Results

Results of this week's In or Out? choices will be available. Make a comment, share an opinion, or just take it in, as our community reads and reacts to Matthew Desmond's Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City. No registration necessary.

3:30-5 pm Thursday, February 1 at Main Library

If you are 13-17 years of age, our Three for Teens Library Card Is for YOU! No I.D. Needed

Get your card at the Circulation desk at Main Library or Bertram Woods Branch. Then use the card only at Shaker Library to check out up to three books and to gain access to eMedia. You don't need to present an ID, but you must provide your address and birth date. A parent/guardian does not need to sign for your card and no holds can be placed with this card.
